

Name: _____

Date: _____

Elizabeth Blackwell

The paragraph below tells about an important event in January. Can you find and mark ten errors in the paragraph? You might look for errors of capitalization, punctuation, spelling, or grammar.

Many people told her it was impossible four a woman to be a doctor, but Elizabeth Blackwell proved them wrong. First, she atended New York's Geneva Medical College. Than in january 1849, she became the first women in America to earn an M.D degree. Blackwell helped open the New York Infirmary for Women and Children, which provided training for women doctor's and medecal care for the poor. Even after she retired from medicine, she continue to support womens rights.

© 2013 by Education World®. Education World grants users permission to reproduce this work sheet for educational purposes only.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Elizabeth Blackwell

The paragraph below tells about an important event in January. Can you find and mark ten errors in the paragraph? You might look for errors of capitalization, punctuation, spelling, or grammar.

Many people told her it was impossible four a woman to be a doctor, but Elizabeth Blackwell proved them wrong. First, she atended New York's Geneva Medical College. Than in january 1849, she became the first women in America to earn an M.D degree. Blackwell helped open the New York Infirmary for Women and Children, which provided training for women doctor's and medecal care for the poor. Even after she retired from medicine, she continue to support womens rights.

© 2013 by Education World®. Education World grants users permission to reproduce this work sheet for educational purposes only.