

Autumn: Five Senses and Adjectives

Autumn has something special for each of our senses: sight, taste, hearing, smell, and touch. Complete each sentence below with something you see, taste, hear, smell, or touch during autumn, then write an adjective that describes it.

1. In autumn, I see _____.

Adjective: _____

2. In autumn, I taste _____.

Adjective: _____

3. In autumn, I hear _____.

Adjective: _____

4. In autumn, I smell _____.

Adjective: _____

5. In autumn, I touch _____.

Adjective: _____

Autumn: Five Senses and Adjectives

Autumn has something special for each of our senses: sight, taste, hearing, smell, and touch. Complete each sentence below with something you see, taste, hear, smell, or touch during autumn, then write an adjective that describes it.

Student's answers will vary; examples of correct answers:

1. In autumn, I see leaves change color.

Adjective: red

2. In autumn, I taste pumpkin pie.

Adjective: sweet

3. In autumn, I hear rain falling.

Adjective: wet

4. In autumn, I smell smoke from the chimney.

Adjective: warm

5. In autumn, I touch the falling leaves.

Adjective: dry

